

Volunteer Position: Programming Facilitator Job Description

Programming facilitators share specialized skills and knowledge with the women accessing the Downtown Eastside Women's Centre (DEWC), conducting workshops relating to arts and crafts, health and wellness, cultural practices, and more. By volunteering as a program facilitator, you're giving women access to creative expression, a welcoming and collaborative atmosphere, and building a sense of community.

Below are some examples of topics or workshops facilitators can lead:

- Arts & crafts: collaging, knitting and crocheting, scrapbooking, zine making.
- Style & fashion: accessory making, DIY fashion, button or patch making.
- Therapeutic and healing practices: art therapy, meditative exercises, reiki. Practicum students welcome.
- Life skills: financial literacy, computer basics, reading and writing.

To apply, please contact Celine, Culture & Program Coordinator by email: cacoordinator@dewc.ca, and include "Programming Volunteer" in the message subject.
